This Agreement and the Credit Application are submitted by an authorized representative of the undersigned (hereafter Buyer) to Industrial Computers Inc. (hereafter ICI), to obtain trade credit. Buyer agrees to pay ICI for each purchase in accordance with the terms stated on the respective invoices and to pay ICI a finance charge, in an amount equal to 1.5% per month, or the maximum provided by law (whichever is more) for invoice amounts that are past due. Past Due and/or Default shall mean any invoice unpaid as of the due date of that invoice. Upon Buyer's default, ICI has the right, without notice to Buyer, to declare all invoice amounts immediately due and payable. In the event ICI commences any action, or otherwise seeks to enforce this Agreement against Buyer or any Guarantor, Buyer shall pay all collection agent fees and expenses, reasonable attorney(s) fees, court and other expenses incurred by ICI, regardless of whether a formal court case is completed or not. This Agreement is not transferable or assignable by the Buyer without prior written consent of ICI. This Agreement shall become effective upon acceptance by ICI. ICI reserves the right to modify, curtail, or eliminate credit availability to the Buyer within its sole discretion. Buyer agrees that all sales shall be governed by ICI's Terms and Conditions of Sale, as stated on the invoice issued by ICI or posted on ICI's internet site at www.eindustrialcomputers.com, unless ICI and Buyer have executed a separate written agreement which specifically supersedes and replaces those terms and conditions. No terms or conditions of any purchase order or similar document shall be binding on ICI contrary to ICI's published Terms and Conditions. This Agreement and all other agreements with ICI including but not limited to, the Terms and Conditions of Sale, are considered to be a single integrated agreement. ICI reserves the right to effect a recoupment of any funds due at any time to Buyer from ICI and to set off any amounts against amounts owed by Buyer to ICI. Buyer acknowledges that all payments due hereunder are required to be made to ICI at ICI's above stated address in Washtenaw County, Michigan. Buyer further acknowledges that the appropriate forum for litigation with respect to the enforcement of this Credit Application and any Agreement for sale of goods shall be in a court of competent jurisdiction in Washtenaw County, Michigan. Notwithstanding the place of business of Buyer or the place of execution of this Credit Application and Agreement, the laws of the State of Michigan shall control the construction, interpretation and enforcement of this Credit Application and Agreement and all matters related to this Credit Application and Agreement, without application or reference to conflict of laws provisions. EACH PARTY HEREBY WAIVES TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY ACTION, PROCEEDING, CLAIM, OR COUNTERCLAIM BROUGHT BY EITHER PARTY IN CONNECTION WITH ANY MATTER ARISING OUT OF OR IN ANY WAY CONNECTED WITH THIS CREDIT APPLICATION AND ANY AGREEMENT HEREUNDER. Buyer hereby represents and warrants that the information provided in this application and in any and all additional documents, financial statements or other information furnished by Buyer to ICI is true and correct in all material respects and contains all information necessary so that this application is not materially misleading. Buyer acknowledges that ICI is relying on the accuracy of the information provided by Buyer. Buyer hereby grants ICI a purchase money security interest in any and all goods purchased by Buyer from ICI plus all accounts resulting therein, to secure any and all obligations of Buyer to ICI, including but not limited to any obligation of payment. Buyer authorizes ICI to execute and record any financing statement or other document necessary to perfect and continue any purchase money security interest related to this Agreement. The Federal Equal Credit Opportunity Act prohibits creditors from discriminating against credit applicants on the basis of race, color, religion, natural origin, sex, marital status, age (provided the applicant has the capacity to enter into a binding contract); because all or part of the applicant's income derives from any public assistance program; or because the applicant has in good faith executed any right under the Consumer Credit Protection Act. I, [insert full name] and I, [insert full name] for and in consideration of Industrial Computers Inc. ("ICI") extending credit at my request to [insert company name] a [insert type of company and state incorporated] with its registered office at [insert address], including its subsidiaries and/or affiliated companies (hereafter "Buyer"), hereby personally and unconditionally guarantee and promise to pay ICI any obligations of Buyer to ICI and I hereby agree to bind myself to pay ICI on demand any sum which may become due to ICI by Buyer, whenever buyer shall fail to pay the same. This Personal Guaranty guarantees all extensions of credit including, but not limited to, increases to the credit limit of the Buyer, and is not given in association with any one particular grant of credit or credit application. "Obligations" include but are not limited to all extensions of credit to Buyer, all transactions between Buyer and ICI, the invoiced cost of products and services sold to Buyer by ICI, and any other amounts, charges, expenses, interest, fees, costs owed by Buyer to ICI. I will reimburse ICI for all expenses incurred by it in the collection, enforcement or attempted enforcement of any of its rights hereunder against Buyer or Guarantor including, but not limited to, reasonable attorney fees and costs and collection agent fees and expenses. I subordinate any obligations that Buyer may have to me to the obligations of Buyer owed to ICI. I agree to so pay and perform without requiring ICI to exercise, pursue or enforce any right or remedy ICI has against Buyer, any co-guarantor, or any other party.

I consent that from time to time ICI may, without notice to me and without affecting any of my liability: (a) exchange, release, sell (by foreclosure or otherwise), consent to the transfer of, apply or otherwise deal with any collateral for repayment of the obligations at the election of ICI, (b) refinance, extend, renew, increase, decrease or accelerate the obligations in whole or in part, (c) waive or fail to enforce any of its rights under any instruments evidencing, relating to, or securing the obligations, or (d) settle, release (by operation of law or otherwise), compound, compromise, collect or liquidate, in any manner, any of the obligations, or any obligations of any co-guarantor (whether hereunder or under a separate instrument) or any other party. My obligations under this Personal Guaranty remain in effect and are not diminished or impaired notwithstanding: (a) the change, restructure or termination of the corporate structure or existence of Buyer and any corresponding restructure of the obligations, (b) the existence of any claim, set off, defense, or other right that Buyer may have at any time against ICI or that I may have against Buyer. I waive diligence and all demands, protests, presentments, notices of default, non-payment and notice hereof and consent to any modification or renewal of the obligations hereby guaranteed.

I acknowledge that all payments due hereunder are required to be made to ICI at ICI's address in Washtenaw County, Michigan, and that an appropriate forum for litigation with respect to the enforcement of this Personal Guaranty shall be in a court of competent jurisdiction in Washtenaw County, Michigan. Notwithstanding the place of residence of Guarantor or the place of execution of this Personal Guaranty, the laws of the State of Michigan shall control the construction, interpretation and enforcement of this Personal Guaranty and all matters related to this Personal Guaranty, without application or reference to conflict of laws provisions.

This Personal Guaranty is a general, continuing, absolute, unconditional and irrevocable guarantee of payment and not of collection, and is an indemnity for such obligations of Buyer, enforceable by ICI, its successors and assigns, and is binding upon Guarantor and Guarantor's heirs and assigns and shall inure to the benefit of ICI's successors and assigns. The liability of Guarantor is primary, direct, unconditional and independent of the obligations of Buyer. If more than one person shall execute this Personal Guaranty, the singular shall include the plural and the terms "undersigned" and "Guarantor" shall mean all persons signing this Personal Guaranty, and each of them shall be jointly and severally obligated hereunder. All of ICI's rights and remedies hereunder are cumulative and not alternative. The Federal Equal Credit Opportunity Act prohibits creditors from discriminating against credit applicants on the basis of race, color, religion, natural origin, sex, marital status, age (provided the applicant has the capacity to enter into a binding contract); because all or part of the applicant's income derives from any public assistance program; or because the applicant has in good faith executed any right under the Consumer Credit Protection Act. The federal agency that administers compliance with this law concerning the creditor is the Federal Trade Commission, Equal Credit Opportunity, Washington, DC 20580.

EACH PARTY HEREBY WAIVES TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY ACTION, PROCEEDING, CLAIM, OR COUNTERCLAIM BROUGHT BY EITHER PARTY IN CONNECTION WITH ANY MATTER ARISING OUT OF OR IN ANY WAY CONNECTED WITH THIS PERSONAL GUARANTY OR THE RELATIONSHIP OF ICI AND GUARANTOR HEREUNDER.

It is understood by Guarantor that any defaults, failure to pay when due or credit experience on the part of Guarantor may be reported by ICI to a consumer credit reporting agency. The undersigned Guarantor, recognizing that his or her individual credit history may be a necessary factor in the evaluation of this Personal Guaranty, hereby consents to and authorizes the use of a consumer credit report on the undersigned Guarantor by ICI as a business credit grantor from time to time as may be needed in the credit evaluation process.

INSTRUCTIONS REGARDING UNIFORM SALES & USE TAX CERTIFICATES

To Seller's Customers:

In order to comply with the majority of state and local sales tax law requirements, the seller must have in its files a properly executed exemption certificate from all of its customers who claim a sales tax exemption. If the seller does not have this certificate, it is obliged to collect the tax for the state in which the property or service is delivered.

If the buyer is entitled to sales tax exemption, the buyer should complete the certificate and send it to the seller at its earliest convenience. If the buyer purchases tax free for a reason for which this form does not provide, the buyer should send the seller its special certificate or statement.

Caution to Seller:

In order for the certificate to be accepted in good faith by the seller, seller must exercise care that the property or service being sold is of a type normally sold wholesale, resold, leased, rented, or incorporated as an ingredient or component part of a product manufactured by buyer and then resold in the usual course of its business. A seller failing to exercise due care could be held liable for the sales tax due in some states or cities. Misuse of this certificate by seller, lessor, buyer, lessee, or the representative thereof may be punishable by fine, imprisonment or loss of right to issue certificate in some states or cities.

Notes:

1. Alabama: Each retailer shall be responsible for determining the validity of a purchaser's claim for exemption.
2. Arizona: This certificate may be used only when making purchases of tangible personal property for resale in the ordinary course of business, and not for any other statutory deduction or exemption. It is valid as a resale certificate only if it contains the purchaser's name, address, signature, and Arizona transaction privilege tax (or other state sales tax) license number, as required by Arizona Revised Statutes 42-5022, Burden of proving sales not at retail.
3. California:
 - A. This certificate is not valid as an exemption certificate. Its use is limited to use as a resale certificate subject to the provisions of Title 18, California Code of Regulations, Section 1668 (Sales and Use Tax Regulation 1668, Resale Certificate).
 - B. By use of this certificate, the purchaser certifies that the property is purchased for resale in the regular course of business in the form of tangible personal property, which includes property incorporated as an ingredient or component part of an item manufactured for resale in the regular course of business.
 - C. When the applicable tax would be sales tax, it is the seller who owes that tax unless the seller takes a timely and valid resale certificate in good faith.
 - D. A valid resale certificate is effective until the issuer revokes the certificate.
4. The state of Colorado, Hawaii, Illinois, and New Mexico do not permit the use of this certificate to claim a resale exemption for the purchase of a taxable service for resale.
5. Connecticut: This certificate is not valid as an exemption certificate. Its use is limited to use as a resale certificate subject to Conn. Gen. State 12-410(5) and 12-411(14) and an regulations and administrative pronouncements pertaining to resale certificates.
6. District of Columbia: This certificate is not valid as an exemption certificate. It is not valid as a resale certificate unless it contains the purchaser's D.C. sales and use tax registration number.
7. Florida: The Department will allow purchasers to use the Multistate Tax Commission's Uniform Sales and Use Tax Certificate-Multijurisdiction. However, the use of this uniform certificate must be used in conjunction with the telephonic or electronic authorization number method described in paragraph (3)(b) or (c) of rule SUT FAC 12A-1.039..
8. Georgia: the purchaser's state of registration number will be accepted in lieu of Georgia's registration number when the purchaser is located outside Georgia, does not have nexus with Georgia, and the tangible personal property is delivered by drop shipment to the purchaser's customer located in Georgia.
9. Hawaii allows this certificate to be used by the seller to claim a lower general excise tax rate or no general excise tax, rather than the buyer claiming an exemption. The no tax situation occurs when the purchaser of imported goods certifies to the seller, who originally imported the goods into Hawaii, that the purchaser will resell the imported goods at wholesale. If the lower rate or no tax does not in fact apply to the sale, the purchaser is liable to pay the seller the additional tax imposed. See Hawaii Dept. of Taxation Tax Information Release No. 93-5, November 10, 1993, and Tax Information Release No. 98-8, October 30, 1998.
10. Use of this certificate in Illinois is subject to the provisions of 86 Ill. Adm. Code Ch.1, Sec. 130.1405. Illinois does not have an exemption on sales of property for subsequent lease or rental, nor does the use of this certificate for claiming resale purchases of services have any application in Illinois.

The registration number to be supplied next to Illinois on page 1 of this certificate must be the Illinois registration or resale number; no other state's registration number is acceptable.

"Good faith" is not the standard of care to be exercised by a retailer in Illinois. A retailer in Illinois is not required to determine if the purchaser actually intends to resell the item. Instead, a retailer must confirm that the purchaser has a valid registration or resale number at the time of purchase. If a purchaser fails to provide a certificate of resale at the time of sale in Illinois, the seller must charge the purchaser tax.

While there is no statutory requirement that blanket certificates of resale be renewed at certain intervals, blanket certificates should be updated periodically, and no less frequently than every three years.
11. Kentucky:
 - A. Kentucky does not permit the use of this certificate to claim a resale exclusion for the purchase of a taxable service.
 - B. This certificate is not valid as an exemption certificate. Its use is limited to use as a resale certificate subject to the provisions of Kentucky Revised Statute 139.270 (Good Faith).
 - C. The use of this certificate by the purchaser constitutes the issuance of a blanket certificate in accordance with Kentucky Administrative Regulation 103 KAR 31 : 111 .
12. Maine does not have an exemption on sales of property for subsequent lease or rental

13. Maryland: This certificate is not valid as an exemption certificate. However, vendors may accept resale certificates that bear the exemption number issued to a religious organization. Exemption certifications issued to religious organizations consist of 8 digits, the first two of which are always "29". Maryland registration, exemption and direct pay numbers may be verified on the website of the Comptroller of the Treasury at www.marylandtaxes.com.
14. Michigan: Effective for a period of three years unless a lesser period is mutually agreed to and stated on this certificate. Covers all exempt transfers when accepted by the seller in "good faith" as defined by Michigan statute.
15. Minnesota:
A. Does not allow a resale certificate for purchases of taxable services for resale in most situations
B. Allows an exemption for items used only once during production and not used again.
16. Missouri:
A. Purchases who improperly purchase property or services sales tax free using this certificate may be required to pay the tax, interest, additions to tax or penalty.
B. Even if property is delivered outside Missouri, facts and circumstances may subject it to Missouri tax, contrary to the second sentence of the first paragraph of the above instructions.
17. Nebraska: A blanket certificate is valid 3 years from the date of issuance.
18. New Mexico: For transactions occurring on or after July 1, 1998, New Mexico will accept this certificate in lieu of a New Mexico nontaxable transaction certificate and as evidence of the deductibility of a sale tangible personal property provided:

a) this certificate was not issued by the State of New Mexico;
b) the buyer is not required to be registered in New Mexico; and
c) the buyer is purchasing tangible personal property for resale or incorporations as an ingredient or component part into a manufactured product.
19. North Carolina: This certificate is not valid as an exemption certificate or if signed by a person such as a contractor who intends to use the property. Its use is subject to G.S. 105-164.28 and any administrative rules or directives pertaining to resale certificates.
20. Ohio:
A. The buyer must specify which one of the reasons for exemption on the certificate applies. This may be done by circling or underlining the appropriate reason or writing it on the form above the state registration section. Failure to specify the exemption reason will, on audit, result in disallowance of the certificate.
B. In order to be valid, the buyer must sign and deliver the certificate to the seller before or during the period for filing the return.
21. Oklahoma would allow this certificate in lieu of a copy of the purchaser's sales tax permit as one of the elements of "properly completed documents" which is one of the three requirements which must be met prior to the vendor being relieved of liability. The other two requirements are that the vendor must have the certificate in his possession at the time the sale is made and must accept the documentation in good faith. The specific documentation required under OAC 710-65-7-6 is:

A. Sales tax permit information may consist of:
i. A copy of the purchaser's sales tax permit; or
ii. In lieu of a copy of the permit, obtain the following:
(I) Sales tax permit number; and
(II) The name and address of the purchaser;
B. A statement that the purchaser is engaged in the business of reselling the articles purchased;
C. A statement that the articles purchased are purchased for resale;
D. The signature of the purchaser or a person authorized to legally bind the purchaser; and
E. Certification on the face of the invoice, bill or sales slip or on separate letter that said purchaser is engaged in reselling the articles purchased.
- Absent strict compliance with these requirements, Oklahoma holds a seller liable for sales tax due on sales where the claimed exemption is found to be invalid, for whatever reason, unless the Tax Commission determines that purchaser should be pursued for collection of the tax resulting from improper presentation of a certificate.
22. Pennsylvania: This certificate is not valid as an exemption certificate. It is valid as a resale certificate only if it contains the purchaser's Pennsylvania Sales and Use Tax eight-digit license number, subject to the provisions of 61 PA Code 32.3.
23. Rhode Island allows this certificate to be used to claim a resale exemption only when the item will be resold in the same form. They do not permit this certificate to be used to claim any other type of exemption.
24. South Dakota: Services which are purchased by a service provider and delivered to a current customer in conjunction with the services contracted to be provided to the customer are claimed to be for resale. Receipts from the sale of a service for resale by the purchaser are not subject to sales tax if the purchaser furnishes a resale certificate which the seller accepts in good faith. In order for the transaction to be a sale for resale, the following conditions must be present:
(1) The service is purchased for or on behalf of a current customer;
(2) The purchaser of the service does not use the service in any manner; and
(3) The service is delivered or resold to the customer without any alteration or change.
25. Texas: Items purchased for resale must be for resale within the geographical limits of the United States, its territories and possessions.
26. Wisconsin allows this certificate to be used to claim a resale exemption only. It does not permit this certificate to be used to claim any other type of exemption.
